Project Director

The Salvation Army

Background

NATIONAL REFERRAL MECHANISM (NRM)

A framework for identifying victims of Modern Slavery and ensuring they receive appropriate protection and support for a minimum of 45 days.

- Modern Slavery Act 2015 places a 'Duty' on Statutory Authorities (e.g. Local Authority, Police) to notify the Home Office if they suspect some-one is a victim of Modern Slavery. Consent of suspected victim is not required.

Role of The Salvation Army (TSA)

- The Salvation Army coordinates the specialist support available to adult victims of Modern Slavery in England and Wales who:
- (a) consent to being referred into the National Referral Mechanism and
- (b) receive a positive 'reasonable grounds' decision, or
- (c) are awaiting a 'reasonable grounds' decision but are destitute and in immediate need of support

How can victims be supported?

- Minimum 45 days 'recovery and reflection' period
- Competent Authorities - Decision-making

Support may include:

- Safe accommodation
- Financial assistance
- Counselling and psychological support
- Emergency medical treatment
- Interpretation and translation services

How can victims be supported?

- Advocacy and information about their rights and the services available to them
- Legal advice and assistance - this may relate to criminal proceedings against those who exploited them, immigration matters, compensation
- Access to education for dependant children of school age
- Support to 'move on' from the service

The Referral Process

- Primary source of Referrals - First Responders e.g. Police, Home Office, NGOs
- TSA 24hr referral line
- Assessment of support needs by telephone or, exceptionally, face to face e.g. if individual in prison, detention centre, hospital
- Accommodation and support needs identified; victim allocated to most appropriate service provider
- Transport to safe house accommodation if required

The Referral Process

- Detailed Needs Based Assessment undertaken by service provider
- Minimum 45 day Recovery and Reflection period
- Tailored support plan
- Move on - barriers to accommodation, employment, income

Alternatives to Accommodation in Shelters

- Asylum Support Service
- Local Authority where client is extremely vulnerable i.e. has severe physical or mental disability
- Other charitable provision outside the NRM

Potential victims not accommodated in a safe house still eligible for support via outreach

Capacity of the Victim Care Service

- 13 non-government organisations
- 350 beds in various categories and locations
- 7 organisations providing outreach/floating support across England and Wales

How many victims have we helped so far?

Between 1st July 2011 and 31st March 2017:

- 8498 potential victims referred to The Salvation Army
- 5302 adult clients supported by The Salvation Army and our partners
